B-U-C-K,

BUCK, BUCK, BUCK ...

As part of Zion's Palm Sunday and Easter events, April 9 is "Buck a Chick" and "Add a Rooster" to support ELCA's World Hunger program. Sunday School students will color and decorate "Chick Pix" for sale to the congregation in Room 101. All proceeds go to the ELCA Good Gifts program to help families escape hunger.

Suggested donations for Chick Pix are $1 each, and roosters can be added for $15 to make a barnyard family of egg-layers. Eggs make nutritious, protein-rich meals for families and the extras can be sold at the marketplace for income, further helping the family. With an ongoing supply, this gift is a great leap forward for a family struggling with hunger and poverty.

SUPPORT BEREAVEMENT TEAMS WITH FOOD DONATIONS

After funeral and memorial services, the Bereavement Committee offers a reception for family and friends. There are five different teams to share the hosting responsibilities, serving light refreshments such as finger sandwiches (egg, chicken and tuna salad, ham & cheese, turkey, pimento, etc.), fruit trays, vegetable trays, chips & dips, cheese, crackers, olives, pickles and (of course!) cookies, brownies and cupcakes.

The Team members set up, serve, and clean up, but the refreshments are provided by Zion members in support of their fellow members in time of need. Will you put yourself on the list for this caring ministry? A team member will contact you when there is a need for snacks, and your work schedule is taken into consideration.

Please sign up on the kiosk near Room 101, or contact the new Bereavement Coordinator Pam Kruger to find out more about this ministry and what you can do to support grieving families at our church.

BENEVOLENCE GIVING

At our annual meeting earlier this fall, we told the congregation that we would keep them informed about our benevolence support to partner ministries. We have some good news on that front.

Because of your generosity, we have been able to fully fund our benevolence for the last three months! In addition we are continuing to collect BLESSED CHANGE and we had a dinner this past week that provided additional money for our partners. Great job, Zion!
